RELEVANT NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANISATIONS

FROM : JONATHAN WILLIAMS
DIRECTOR- EXAMINATIONS MANAGEMENT

SUBJECT : RECRUITMENT OF MARKERS FOR 2020 COMBINED JUNE AND NOVEMBER EXAMINATIONATIONS

DATE : 05 October 2020

The Marking Processes Unit has concluded the first round of selection of markers for the impending combined November Examinations.

In the light of the large numbers of scripts to be marked , additional markers may be required to complement the marking teams that have been selected in certain subjects. Thus, the GDE will embark on a second round of applications to augment teams where shortages might occur.

Educators who meet the requirements as stipulated in Examination Instruction 5 of 2020, attached, and who have not applied to be appointed, are invited to apply for appointment as a marker. Applications will be considered in the subjects where there is a need for additional markers.

The following subjects will require additional markers:

English Home Language

English First Additional Language
 Afrikaans Home Language
 Afrikaans First Additional Language
 Economics
 Agricultural Sciences
 Mathematics
 Mathematical Literacy
 History
 Life Sciences
 Physical Science
 Civil Technology (Construction)
 Design
 Visual Art
 Religion Studies
 Setswana Home Language
 Setswana First Additional Language
 South African Sign Language
 Sesotho Home Language
 Sesotho First Additional Language
 IsiXhosa Home Language
 IsiXhosa First Additional Language

Please take note that only markers who meet the requirements as stipulated in Examination Instruction 5 of 2020, will be considered.

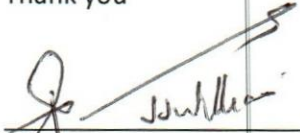

Kindly indicate the setworks studied if applying to mark a language and indicate the relevant specialisation in the subjects where this is relevant.

Please ensure that all processes stipulated in Examination Instruction 5 of 2020 are completed for this second round of recruitment.
