NF 26 / 2017 (8 August 2017)

NAPTOSA POSITION: CALL BY CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANISATIONS FOR PROTEST ACTION AGAINST CORRUPTION AND 'STATE CAPTURE'

NAPTOSA calls on its members to support civil society groups that are demanding good governance and adherence to the rule of law in South Africa.

NAPTOSA stands together with millions of South Africans in the fight against corruption.

NAPTOSA stands with millions of South Africans against 'state capture' and 'monopoly capital' control.

NAPTOSA calls on Government entities empowered to act against all forms of corruption to do so without fear or favour.

NAPTOSA calls on all South Africans to respect, protect, and uphold the Constitution.

NAPTOSA supports civil society organisations that will march to Parliament on 8 August 2017, in a show of solidarity with those MP's who will exercise a conscience vote in the vote of no confidence in the President.

NAPTOSA cannot condone teacher absenteeism from classrooms on 8 August 2017 for purposes of protest. After-school participation in organised protest action would, however, be acceptable.

LOOKING FOR SOME FUN IN THE WINTER SUN?

SACE will be hosting five fun walk events in five provinces. The SACE Fun walks are a yearly event and growing in popularity.

The fun walks are open to educators, BEd third-year and fourth-year university students. The Fun walks are NOT open to teachers' family members.

Entry to the events is FREE OF CHARGE, however, REGISTRATION IS ESSENTIAL.

NAPTOSA members are invited to the Gauteng SACE Fun Walk on Saturday, 19 August 2017, Lyttelton Primary School, Potgieter Rd, Centurion, Pretoria.
Time : 08H00

Branch chairpersons are encouraged to make this a branch event and invite branch members to come and enjoy the day with other educators. This is also an excellent team building opportunity for the teaching staff of a school.

Click here for the registration form. Closing date for registration is 10 August 2017.

For more information please contact Mr Cecil Scorgie at the Gauteng office.
